

Fluorotechnics relocates Australian operations

15 June 2009 – Sydney, Australia: Fluorotechnics Limited (ASX:FLS), the global leader in fluorescence and protein technologies, has relocated its Australian office and operations from Macquarie University to Gladesville.

The new address and contact details are as follows:

Unit 3,
43 – 51 College Street,
GLADESVILLE
NSW 2111

Telephone: +61 2 9817 7400

Fax: +61 2 9817 7433

Websites:

Corporate www.fluorotechnics.com
Customers www.gelcompany.com

The new address is the registered office of the company and its principal place of business.

Enquiries:

Rick Taylor, Chairman, Fluorotechnics
+61 2 9450 1313

About Fluorotechnics: Fluorotechnics sells and develops innovative consumables and equipment that enable scientists to better measure biological processes using fluorescence. The company has established itself as the global leader in the supply of products which are environmentally friendly, safe to use and offer a unique solution and superior performance compared to existing products. These products are used globally by our customers in research, quality control and diagnostics. See our website to view our products www.gelcompany.com